

LETMEVOTE

KNOW YOUR VOTING RIGHTS

★ WISCONSIN ★

Election Day is November 6

VOTING IN WISCONSIN WITH A CRIMINAL CONVICTION

- ★ If you were convicted of a FELONY and you are “off paper” (you have finished your sentence), YOU CAN VOTE! You have to re-register—you can do this beforehand by mail or in person, or you can register at your polling place on Election Day.
- ★ If you are in prison, on probation, on parole or extended supervision for a FELONY, you CANNOT vote.
- ★ If you were convicted of a MISDEMEANOR, you never lose your right to vote.
- ★ If you are in jail on Election Day because of a MISDEMEANOR sentence, you have the right to vote by absentee ballot.
- ★ If you are in jail on Election Day because you have been charged with a crime but not convicted, you have the right to vote by absentee ballot.
- ★ You have to ask for an absentee ballot from the clerk where you live when you are NOT in jail.
- ★ Photo ID should not be required for the November 6 elections, however court decisions may change. Check for the latest news before heading to the polls.
- ★ You can register to vote at your polling place on Election Day.

If you have questions, call (866) OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683)

LETMEVOTE

KNOW YOUR VOTING RIGHTS

★ WISCONSIN ★

Election Day is November 6

VOTING IN WISCONSIN WITH A CRIMINAL CONVICTION

- ★ If you were convicted of a FELONY and you are “off paper” (you have finished your sentence), YOU CAN VOTE! You have to re-register—you can do this beforehand by mail or in person, or you can register at your polling place on Election Day.
- ★ If you are in prison, on probation, on parole or extended supervision for a FELONY, you CANNOT vote.
- ★ If you were convicted of a MISDEMEANOR, you never lose your right to vote.
- ★ If you are in jail on Election Day because of a MISDEMEANOR sentence, you have the right to vote by absentee ballot.
- ★ If you are in jail on Election Day because you have been charged with a crime but not convicted, you have the right to vote by absentee ballot.
- ★ You have to ask for an absentee ballot from the clerk where you live when you are NOT in jail.
- ★ Photo ID should not be required for the November 6 elections, however court decisions may change. Check for the latest news before heading to the polls.
- ★ You can register to vote at your polling place on Election Day.

If you have questions, call (866) OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683)

LETMEVOTE

KNOW YOUR VOTING RIGHTS

★ WISCONSIN ★

Election Day is November 6

VOTING IN WISCONSIN WITH A CRIMINAL CONVICTION

- ★ If you were convicted of a FELONY and you are “off paper” (you have finished your sentence), YOU CAN VOTE! You have to re-register—you can do this beforehand by mail or in person, or you can register at your polling place on Election Day.
- ★ If you are in prison, on probation, on parole or extended supervision for a FELONY, you CANNOT vote.
- ★ If you were convicted of a MISDEMEANOR, you never lose your right to vote.
- ★ If you are in jail on Election Day because of a MISDEMEANOR sentence, you have the right to vote by absentee ballot.
- ★ If you are in jail on Election Day because you have been charged with a crime but not convicted, you have the right to vote by absentee ballot.
- ★ You have to ask for an absentee ballot from the clerk where you live when you are NOT in jail.
- ★ Photo ID should not be required for the November 6 elections, however court decisions may change. Check for the latest news before heading to the polls.
- ★ You can register to vote at your polling place on Election Day.

If you have questions, call (866) OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683)

LETMEVOTE

KNOW YOUR VOTING RIGHTS

★ WISCONSIN ★

Election Day is November 6

VOTING IN WISCONSIN WITH A CRIMINAL CONVICTION

- ★ If you were convicted of a FELONY and you are “off paper” (you have finished your sentence), YOU CAN VOTE! You have to re-register—you can do this beforehand by mail or in person, or you can register at your polling place on Election Day.
- ★ If you are in prison, on probation, on parole or extended supervision for a FELONY, you CANNOT vote.
- ★ If you were convicted of a MISDEMEANOR, you never lose your right to vote.
- ★ If you are in jail on Election Day because of a MISDEMEANOR sentence, you have the right to vote by absentee ballot.
- ★ If you are in jail on Election Day because you have been charged with a crime but not convicted, you have the right to vote by absentee ballot.
- ★ You have to ask for an absentee ballot from the clerk where you live when you are NOT in jail.
- ★ Photo ID should not be required for the November 6 elections, however court decisions may change. Check for the latest news before heading to the polls.
- ★ You can register to vote at your polling place on Election Day.

If you have questions, call (866) OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683)

Vote to empower yourself, your family and your community. Vote so the needs of your community are met by your elected officials. Vote because your voice is important and deserves to be heard.

For more information:

- Contact the Government Accountability Board for general voting information or to file a complaint: (866) 868-3947 or gab.wi.gov/elections-voting/voters.
- Contact Wisconsin Election Protection with general voting questions: on Election Day call (866) OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683)
- Contact the ACLU of Wisconsin if you feel you were denied your right to vote: (414) 272-4032 x 216 or aclu-wi.org
- Contact the U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Voting Section to report instances of discrimination at the polls: (800) 253-3931

For more information on the ACLU's work on voting rights in Wisconsin, visit www.aclu-wi.org or see our blog at forwardforliberty.org.

This message is brought to you by the Restore the Vote Wisconsin Coalition, an educational project of the American Civil Liberties Union of Wisconsin Foundation, funded in part by a generous grant from the David Rockefeller Fund.

Vote to empower yourself, your family and your community. Vote so the needs of your community are met by your elected officials. Vote because your voice is important and deserves to be heard.

For more information:

- Contact the Government Accountability Board for general voting information or to file a complaint: (866) 868-3947 or gab.wi.gov/elections-voting/voters.
- Contact Wisconsin Election Protection with general voting questions: on Election Day call (866) OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683)
- Contact the ACLU of Wisconsin if you feel you were denied your right to vote: (414) 272-4032 x 216 or aclu-wi.org
- Contact the U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Voting Section to report instances of discrimination at the polls: (800) 253-3931

For more information on the ACLU's work on voting rights in Wisconsin, visit www.aclu-wi.org or see our blog at forwardforliberty.org.

This message is brought to you by the Restore the Vote Wisconsin Coalition, an educational project of the American Civil Liberties Union of Wisconsin Foundation, funded in part by a generous grant from the David Rockefeller Fund.

Vote to empower yourself, your family and your community. Vote so the needs of your community are met by your elected officials. Vote because your voice is important and deserves to be heard.

For more information:

- Contact the Government Accountability Board for general voting information or to file a complaint: (866) 868-3947 or gab.wi.gov/elections-voting/voters.
- Contact Wisconsin Election Protection with general voting questions: on Election Day call (866) OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683)
- Contact the ACLU of Wisconsin if you feel you were denied your right to vote: (414) 272-4032 x 216 or aclu-wi.org
- Contact the U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Voting Section to report instances of discrimination at the polls: (800) 253-3931

For more information on the ACLU's work on voting rights in Wisconsin, visit www.aclu-wi.org or see our blog at forwardforliberty.org.

This message is brought to you by the Restore the Vote Wisconsin Coalition, an educational project of the American Civil Liberties Union of Wisconsin Foundation, funded in part by a generous grant from the David Rockefeller Fund.

Vote to empower yourself, your family and your community. Vote so the needs of your community are met by your elected officials. Vote because your voice is important and deserves to be heard.

For more information:

- Contact the Government Accountability Board for general voting information or to file a complaint: (866) 868-3947 or gab.wi.gov/elections-voting/voters.
- Contact Wisconsin Election Protection with general voting questions: on Election Day call (866) OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683)
- Contact the ACLU of Wisconsin if you feel you were denied your right to vote: (414) 272-4032 x 216 or aclu-wi.org
- Contact the U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Voting Section to report instances of discrimination at the polls: (800) 253-3931

For more information on the ACLU's work on voting rights in Wisconsin, visit www.aclu-wi.org or see our blog at forwardforliberty.org.

This message is brought to you by the Restore the Vote Wisconsin Coalition, an educational project of the American Civil Liberties Union of Wisconsin Foundation, funded in part by a generous grant from the David Rockefeller Fund.

