

VOTING IN WISCONSIN AFTER A CRIMINAL CONVICTION

IF YOU...

Were convicted of a felony and you are “off paper” (you aren’t on parole/probation/extended supervision)

HOW TO VOTE

You need to register — there are several ways to do this, including at your polling place on Election Day with proof of residence — and you need to have photo ID, and then you can vote.

If you are in jail on Election Day but have not yet been convicted or pled guilty

Register, and vote by absentee ballot. You must send a request for an absentee ballot to your municipal clerk, along with a copy of your photo ID unless they already have it on file.

(There are some deadlines.)

If you are in jail on Election Day because of a misdemeanor sentence

Register, and vote by absentee ballot. You must send a request for an absentee ballot to your municipal clerk, along with a copy of your photo ID unless they already have it on file.

(There are some deadlines.)

If you were convicted of a misdemeanor and are not in jail

You need to register — there are several ways to do this, including at your polling place on Election Day with proof of residence — and you need to have photo ID, and then you can vote.

If you are in prison, or on probation, on parole or supervision for a felony or misdemeanor bribery/treason

There are other ways you can engage in your community.
