Participant/ Parent / Guardian Waiver

With my signature, I agree to waive any claims of negligence against the ACLU of Wisconsin Foundation, UW-Milwaukee, or any other agency involved with Youth Social Justice Forum for any injury sustained as a result of participation in the Youth Social Justice Forum. I understand that without such a waiver, it would be prohibitively costly to offer this program free of charge. Further, I give the ACLU-WI permission to use participants' photos, images, and likenesses for their own usage.

___ Know Your Rights in Law Enforcement/ ICE Encounters

Want to know what your rights and responsibilities are when law enforcement or ICE want to search your car, backpack or home? Do you really have the right to an attorney? Find out these answers and more in this exciting workshop.

___ What Does Black Empowerment Look Like?

Learn about what local organizations are doing in the community and how they are building Black Empowerment in Milwaukee and learn active ways to be impactful and supportive to the Black community

___ Julie Through the System: Experiencing the Juvenile Justice System From Arrest to Incarceration

Participants walk through the process of arrest to incarceration as "Julie," a young woman who is arrested after remaining at a bus stop where an altercation broke out. Participants must make decisions along the way that affect how deeply within the juvenile justice system they are processed.

___ YF4J- Youth Fighting 4 Justice: The Mix tape

Become a producer, performer, contributor or partner in the 'Youth Fighting 4 Justice' Media Project. We will be creating art, filming, recording video and audio content together.

___ And I OOP...

This workshop is yet to exist but we promise it will be awesome! The topic could be anything from a t-shirt printing workshop to a workshop about Student Privacy in Schools. Select if you are adventurous and like to be surprised!

___ Out of the Closets and Into the Classroom

Is it legal to start a Gay Straight Alliance at your school? Can your teacher or classmate "out" your friend? Learn how to embrace diversity, increase awareness, and eliminate stereotypes surrounding lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender people and their allies.

___ Healthy Teen Relationships

In this workshop, participants will learn what a healthy relationship looks, feels, and sound like.

___ My Vote, My Voice

Voting is a fundamental right and the foundation for making our democracy work. Learn the history of voting and voting rights to show the expansion of voting rights beyond white men who owned land. Learn who gets to decide on issues you care about and how that relates to exercising their right to vote.

___ Smart Justice

In this work shop participants will learn more about the ACLU of Wisconsin's Campaign for Smart Justice, an unprecedented, multi-year effort to reduce Wisconsin's jail and prison populations by 50 percent and to eliminate racial disparities in the criminal justice system.

___ Print Making and Activist Screen Printing

This workshop emphasizes poster design principles; developing screen printing poster concepts; presenting your poster; understanding your audience; and evaluating a poster. Participants will select graphics from a range of pre-exposed screens, then combine images and text to create unique posters, murals, and messages for positive social change. Sling some ink!

___ Youth Organizing 2.0

Students who have worked as social justice activists will come together to share how engaging in community activism has provided life changing and enhancing opportunities.

___ Using your Smartphone to tell a story

Learn how to use your smartphone or camera to create videos and photos that document your life and important narratives of your community. Learn your rights as a video/photo documentarian.*

 Students will need a smartphone with sufficient storage in order to participate in this workshop

___ Shared Power, Shared Voice

Engage a circle of friends, family, or peers in trust building games, asking thought provoking questions, and participating in meaningful dialogue about topics essential to life. Move past opinions to real stories, authentic questions, and purposeful shared action. Learn how to foster a fair and inclusive environment in your community.

___ Poetry for the People

We need a new language for these times. We will explore various poets from all over the globe. Guest poet(s) will share their own work and influences. Facilitator will share tips for editing, how to get published, how to grow your art, perform your work, and share resources that are available to everyone in the Midwest. Poetry is an ancient art form and anyone can be a poet. We will celebrate Joy Harjo and her body of work. Joy Harjo is our new US Poet Laureate and the first Native American to fill this role.

___ Speak your truth, Tell your story

Have you experienced discrimination or spoken out against injustice? True personal stories can draw in listeners, inspire empathy, and even help change people's minds – if they are told effectively. In this workshop, Ex Fabula coaches will guide you through a series of interactive, small group activities. You'll learn how to use stories in advocacy, connect with other activists, and let your voice be heard.

___ Big Mad/Little Mad

This workshop will help students explore violence and the impact it has on a child's life. The facilitators will discuss their personal history of witnessing violence as children and connect that experience to the violent actions they chose because they were mad.
